

Marywood University enters into partnership with the Kisubi Brothers University College, Uganda.

On June 11, 2014, Marywood University president, Sister Anne Munley, IHM and Professor John Ssbuwufu signed a memorandum of understanding with a goal to provide education for the Catholic Sisters in Uganda. Using the Blue Jeans conference call, both Sr. Anne and Prof. Ssebufu talked about the new partnership and their institution's commitment towards providing quality education. It was an extraordinary opportunity given that MOU was signed via virtual means. Sisters will use this virtual method to take their classes from Marywood University. So far, 36 sisters from Kenya, Uganda, and Zambia have taken online classes. This is only the beginning of greater things to come.

Present to witness this occasion from Marywood University were: Dr. Alan Levin, Vice President for Academic Affairs, Dr. Maria Montoro –Edwards, Assistant Vice President for Research and Sister Jane Wakahiu, LSOSF, ASEC, Executive Director. From Kisubi Brothers University College were: Prof. John Ssbuwufu, Principal, Brother Benard Mutaka, Deputy Principal, Sr. Margaret Kubanze, LSOSF, ARU, Secretary General, Sr. Germina Keneema, Programs Coordinators and faculty from the KBUC.

Sister Anne Munley, IHM, appends signature on the MOU.

Above: Prof. John Ssbuwufu, Principal Kisubi Brothers University College signs the MOU. Looking on is Sr. Margaret Kubanze, LSOSF, AU, Secretary General, Uganda.

Seated signing MOU: Sr. Anne Munley, IHM, President and Dr. Alan Levine, Vice President, Academic Affairs at Marywood University. Standing: Dr. Maria Montoro-Edwards, Assistant Vice President for Research and Sr. Jane Wakahiu, LSOSE, ASEC, Executive Director.

Both Sr. Anne and Prof. John show the signed MOU.